2014 HOPES Workshop
Fostering Partnerships between Colleges, Universities and K-12 Schools
Saturday, April 26, 2014, 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM
San Diego Marriott Marquis & Marina Hotel, Santa Rosa room, 1st Floor, South Tower

9:00 AM    Welcome and opening remarks – Regina Stevens-Truss

Presentations by past HOPES award recipients

9:15 AM    Challenging High School Students to New Horizons in Science Education – James Hazzard

9:30 AM    Curiosity: A Secrecy of Over a Century, From Polyploid Giant Cells to Cancer Stem Cells – Yinsheng Wan

9:50 AM    Break

Presentations by San Diego-area scientist-teacher partnership programs

10:00 AM    Opportunities for High School and University Partnerships through the iGEM Competition – Kara Helmke

10:15 AM    Salk Institute Education Outreach Programs – Dona Mapston & Ellen Potter

Panel Discussion

10:30 AM    Opportunity for participants to ask logistical questions of the speakers

Hands-on workshop

11:00 AM    Modeling the Molecular World – Tim Herman and Shannondoah Colton

12:00 PM    Lunch, networking, prize drawings (must be present to win), and evaluations